2010 Adelaide's Rose A dry rose, with aromas of strawberry and minerals, and beautiful crisp acidity. This wine is made from 100% Grenache grapes and barrel fermented to create a beautiful creamy finish.	_____	$20.00	$16.00	_____
2008 Grenache, Santa Barbara County A combination of several acclaimed vineyards, this wine is a wonderful representation of the Grenache variety and its success in Santa Barbara. Hints of berry jam and spice.	_____	$27.00	$21.60	_____
2009 Grenache, Camp Four Vineyard Camp Four Vineyard benefits from the warm days and cool nights of Santa Ynez Valley, which is an ideal climate for producing Grenache. This is a delicate wine with aromas of raspberry and cranberry, followed by a smooth, soft finish.	_____	$30.00	$24.00	_____
2008 Grenache, Tierra Alta Vineyard Within the winding back roads of Ballard Canyon in Santa Ynez Valley, Tierra Alta Vineyard climbs in elevation. The "high land" and soil composition of clay and fragmented limestone create an elegant wine, full of vibrant berry aromas, a rich mid-palate and delicate finish.	_____	$30.00	$24.00	_____
2007 Grenache, Watch Hill Vineyard Watch Hill is perched on a steep hillside, spotted with oak trees, over-looking Los Alamos Valley, directly between Santa Ynez and Santa Maria appellations. Here the vineyard produces a more robust, concentrated Grenache with notes of cherry and dried herbs.	_____	$30.00	$24.00	_____
2008 The Porterhouse, Syrah/Grenache The Porterhouse is a unique blend of Syrah and Grenache from three distinguished Central Coast vineyards. The Syrah gives rich, dark characters of black cherry and plum, while the Grenache adds elegant aromatics and balance.	_____	$30.00	$24.00	_____
